

SPEAKERS

March 12 & 13, 2019

	10:30am	TOPIC	ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Millenium Suite	Jenna Johnston Physiotherapist	Physiotherapy	Jenna has thoroughly enjoyed being a Physiotherapist for the last eight years since she graduated from the University of Manitoba. She currently works in two private practice Physiotherapy clinics and loves to volunteer as a Physiotherapist at various events.
2E	Tannis Hogue General Manager, Thermea by Nordic Spa-Nature	Marketing & Public Relations	Tannis believes that when we are well, we are the best versions of ourselves - we dream again and can accomplish great things. With over 20 years experience in media, arts & culture, strategic planning, public relations and marketing with Development Winnipeg/Tourism Winnipeg, Manitoba Film & Music, CHUM Radio, VP, Marketing & Communications with Economic & in her own past business as a consultant.
2F	Dr. Alexander Sawatsky , PhD, RSW Associate Professor, Department of Social Work Booth University College	Social Work	Dr. Sawatsky is the Director & Associate Professor with the Faculty of Social Work at Booth University College. His previous career was in mental health services in the U.S. He was a member of the board of directors with Manitoba Institute of Registered Social Workers and presently a member of the board of directors of the Manitoba College of Social Workers (MCSW) and is a member of the board of directors at the Manitoba Schizophrenia Society (MSS).
2G	Chef Thomas Stuart Executative Chef, Thermea by Nordic Spa-Nature	Culinary Careers	Thomas Stuart is the Executive Chef at Thermea, by Nordik spa Nature in Winnipeg. His philosophy on food is to enhance the spa experience by providing comforting and nourishing food to spa guests while supporting the local food community and local food suppliers. Thomas has created a work environment that encourages learning, growth, and creativity amongst his cooks. This culture that exists in the Thermea kitchen aids in happy employees with minimal staff-turnover.
2H	James Favel Executive Director, The Bear Clan Patrol Inc.	Community Leadership	James is a leader, establishing the Bear Clan Patrol, a grassroots outreach and patrol group in north Winnipeg. He is a Governor General's Award recipient for Indigenous leadership, receiving Meritorious Service Decorations. These awards honour some of the provinces most dedicated Indigenous and non-Indigenous leaders who are working to strengthen urban and rural Indigenous communities and create an environment in which reconciliation is possible.
Pan Am Room *March 12	DJ Blitz Virgin Radio Winnipeg 103.1	Radio & Broadcasting	DJ Blitz is a radio personality, DJ, and social media influencer. Blitz spends time out of the studio in the community, visiting schools, and playing at the hottest clubs in the city. He is the creator of the "What's Up Winnipeg" slogan and finger swoosh combo and his social media network has allowed him to work up the food chain in the entertainment industry and land a career in radio at Winnipeg's #1 Hit Music Station, 103.1 Virgin Radio.
Pan Am Room *March 13	Tyler Magz Virgin Radio Winnipeg 103.1	Radio & Broadcasting	Tyler Magz, AKA 'Manila Ice' is the huge personality behind the afternoon drive at 103.1 Virgin Radio. Whether he's spinning the Top 5 at 5 or interviewing Camila Cabello, Tyler brings a fun, energetic vibe to Winnipeg's number one hit music station. Back in high school Tyler dreamed of becoming a screenwriter, but he's now happier with his calling in the radio broadcasting industry. He's emceed various events within the city including the Young Humanitarian Awards and the 'Our Manitoba Heroes' Gala and loves helping out within the Filipino community in Winnipeg.
Presentation Theatre	Khaled Shariff CEO Project Whitecard Inc.	Virtual Reality Development	Khal is the founder of the Project Whitecard companies, focusing on using highly visual, gaming software. His projects partners include the Canadian Space Agency and NASA for which he created 4 highly-interactive science games. His award-winning games won MacArthur and Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, and Canadian Media Fund grants including "gamifying" Chris Hadfield's space station mission. He has spoke about VR at the World Congress of Science and Factual Producers in San Francisco and has worked with the CBC in Toronto as the technical lead for Hockey Night in Canada

SPEAKERS

March 12 & 13, 2019

	11:30am	TOPIC	ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Millenium Suite	Shawna Sloane-Seale, MS, NCC, RSW Therapist / Masters in Counselling, Bachelors in Psychology	Counselling & Therapy	Shawna has a Masters in Counselling and Bachelors in Psychology. In addition to having a private practice – Center Line Counselling- she works at an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) providing counselling services to employees from various organizations. Her therapeutic work is with Addictions, Marriage and Family counselling and individual therapy ranging from a number of different issues including mental health concerns and life transitions. Her experience has also included working in Forensics Psychiatry and Abnormal Psychology.
2E	Kevin Hughes Director of Corporate Partnerships Winnipeg Football Club	Sales, Marketing & Sponsorship	Kevin is an expert in the sales and marketing field for over 22 years. He has worked with the Yellow Page Group, Bell Media and TSN 1290 and currently with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers Organization. He is excited to come and share his knowledge and experience in Sales & Marketing and will speak about the difference in each role and the uniqueness of each job.
2F	Fauna Kingdon Accountant	Accounting	Fauna is a Manitoba Métis, raised in Iqaluit, Nunavut, now living in Winnipeg. She has a Bachelor of Commerce (Hon) degree with distinction from the U of M, a Masters in Professional Accounting and has earned her Certified Aboriginal Financial Manager (CAFM) designation. Fauna was the only Indigenous Chartered Accountant in the 2009 graduating class and is one of the few Indigenous Chartered Professional Accountants (CPA) in Canada. She is on the Board of Directors of Indspire and was a panelist on the Indspire Canada 150 Tour.
2G	Kathlyn Hossack BSc. CAT(C) PN1 Owner / Operator Integrative Movement	Athletic Therapy	An Athletic Therapist and Kinesiologist & entrepreneur, Kathlyn is the owner and operator of Integrative Movement. She also owns and consults within RideWell Performance, a specialized athletic therapy service for equestrian athletes in Canada. Most recently she has begun her training in Psychosomatic Breathwork under Numa Somatics, and has a special interest in using the combination of this work, movement, and manual therapies in chronic pain and trauma rehabilitation.
2H	Stacey Maes & Heidi Winter Registered Nurse	Nursing	Stacey & Heidi are Registered Nurses at St. Boniface Hospital working in Internal Medicine. Stacey graduated from Mount Royal College in 2008, and began her nursing career in a rural hospital in St. Rose du Lac before moving to Winnipeg. Heidi is a recent graduate from the College of Nursing at the University of Manitoba. Along with working at St. Boniface Hospital - she is also an Agency Nurse contracted to rural Manitoba Hospitals.
Pan Am Room	Len Grieve Educator - Auto Mechanics	Automotive Industry & Trades	Coordinator and educator on Auto Mechanics for over 22 years and Chairperson at Manitoba Skills Automotive Service. Len is dedicated to the Automotive profession and shares his passion with his students.
Presentation Theatre	Michael Redhead Champagne	Finding Your Gift	Michael Redhead Champagne, born and raised in Winnipeg's North End, is an award-winning community organizer, public speaker and a proud member of Shamattawa First Nation. Michael believes we all have a gift and shows youth the path to discover their own. Michael believes in leading by example and now travels across Canada sharing his gift with others. Whether he is speaking to educators, youth, the business community or the not-for-profit sector his goal is the same, to help heal, shape and create a call to action for everyone.

SPEAKERS

March 12 & 13, 2019

	12:30pm	TOPIC	ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Millenium Suite	Julia Evancio & Aaron Pollock Architectural Interns Nejmark Architects & Number TEN Architectural Group	Architecture	Julia graduated from U of M (Bachelor of Environmental Design - Master of Architecture) and has an interest in designing for northern climates and co-designed the runner-up project in a national student design competition for inclusion at an international design exhibition based on the theme of recreation in Nunavut. Aaron is an Architectural Intern with NumberTEN architectural Group. He graduated from the U of M with a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Environmental Design Masters of Architecture. He has led various design efforts such as "On the Docks: Alexander Docks Ideas Competition," and is a Board Member of the Young Construction Leaders of Manitoba.
Pan Am Room	Scott Naherniak Physician Assistant WRHA Family Medicine	Physician Assistant	Scott is a graduate of the U of M's Physician Assistant program. Formerly he was a Chiropractor in which he owned and operated his clinic for 14 years. Scott was the first Family Medicine Physician Assistant in Winnipeg. He has worked as an examiner for the Clinician Assessment Program at the University of Manitoba. Currently he provides care in hospital, clinic, Care home, and in the home to frail Manitoba.
2E	Jan Skene Actor	Careers in the Arts	Jan offers an overview of arts and cultural based career options, with a focus on the support organizations available to youth interested in pursuing a career in the arts. Included areas of interest are Film & Broadcasting, Writing & Publishing, Performing Arts 9 (music, theatre, dance) Digital Arts, Music Recording and Visual Arts.
2F	Amanda Busche & Tom Jansen Co-Founders, Coal and Canary	Entrepreneurs	Meet the Co-Founders of Coal and Canary. Before starting Coal and Canary, Amanda worked as a graphic designer and marketer for companies both large and small & Tom's passion for anything hands-on & creative lead them to being leading entrepreneurs and the creation of Winnipeg's sensation - Coal and Canary Candle Company.
2G	Kevin Slobodian Air Traffic Controller	Air Traffic Control	Air traffic controllers have a constant and direct view of the airport and incoming / outgoing aircraft from the tower. Using radio communication to issue instructions, clearances, in air and on the runways - air traffic controllers continually work to maintain a safe and orderly airspace flow. Kevin and his team work on handling everything from large commercial aircraft to small recreational aircraft and everything in between.
2H	Annie Beach Muralist	Indigenous Artist	Annie Beach is a contemporary, artist currently acquiring a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at the University of Manitoba's School of Art. Beach is a Cree and Saulteaux woman, born and raised in Winnipeg, Manitoba; with relations from Peguis First Nation. Among many other pieces, Beach has created multiple murals with communities throughout the North and West End of the city. Her mural projects have been collaborative with youth participation and a community focus.